DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Sought-after letterbox version Alfaholics upgrades Ultimate drivers car This beauty first graced the stage at the 1965 Frankfurt Motor Show and has been the dream car of every true enthusiast ever since. And why shouldn't it be? This car has it all - style, performance, and an unparalleled marque history. Designed by none other than Giorgetto Giugiaro of the iconic Italian design house Bertone, the Sprint GT was intended to be a sportier version of its predecessor, the Giulietta Sprint. And it certainly lived up to its name! Our 1966 Alfa Romeo Giulia combines stunning looks with outstanding performance, and numerous upgrades make it not only highly capable on the road, but also the car of choice for track days and/or regular driving. Built to trackday/regularity specifications (...)
