DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Bentley S1 DHC First registration 15.09.1957 40.304 Miles The bodywork has been fully restored Straight-six - 4887cc - 177 hp - 130 Kw - RWD 4-Speed automatic transmission Anthracite with beige leather interior Electric mohair roof Conversion to a convertible Register in Belgium since 2009 Story The S1 was the first model in the S series and marked Bentley's transition from separate chassis construction to a unitary body design. The Bentley S1 was typically powered by a 4.9-liter straight-six engine. Bentley cars of this era were known for their luxurious interiors and attention to craftsmanship. The S1 DHC would have featured high-quality materials in its cabin, including fine leather and wood trim. Bentley cars from this period were often coachbuilt, meaning that the chassis and (...)
