DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

After winning the 24 Hours of Le Mans in 1927 and 1928, the bar was raised at Bentley Motors. While the Brooklands plant worked on a Speed 6 with a more powerful 6 1/2 Litre motor, Sir Henry "Tim" Birkin – fastest of the Bentley Boys – added a revolutionary blower to the current 4 1/2 Litre engine. The "Bentley Blower" was born and today, almost 100 years later, we're proudly introducing our new Bentley Special "Speed 6 Blower". Read all about this recreation that combines driving pleasure and the pre-war sensation with comfort and reliability. At the base of this Speed 6 is the rarest and most valuable Bentley worldwide, the Bentley Speed 6 4 1/2 Litre Blower chassis B96UM. In 1928 the Bentley Boys already required a legendary status. However, this wasn't nearly (...)
