DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

The Jaguar XJS V12, produced from 1975 to 1996, is a grand tourer that succeeded the iconic Jaguar E-Type. Its distinctive design, luxurious interior, and powerful V12 engine contribute to its appeal. This Jaguar XJS Coupé is dressed in a beautiful Talisman silver metallic color with a classy Savile grey leather interior. Inside the cabin, the attention to detail reflects Jaguar's commitment to elegance. Wooden accents adorn the dashboard, door panels, and center console. These add warmth and sophistication to the interior. Despite being a coupé, the XJS V12 is a 4-seater and offers a surprisingly spacious trunk. It's perfect for carrying luggage or other items during road trips. Chassis number SAJJNWEW4LP169186 was delivered in March 1990 in the United States , left-hand-drive (...)
