DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Range Rover Classic 4 Doors - Automatic First registration 03.07.2015 Ardennes green with brown leather seats V8 - 4.2L (swap) - 203hp - LPG + Fuel 4 Speed automatic transmission - 4WD Story The Range Rover, a luxury sport utility vehicle, was originally introduced in 1970 by British car manufacturer Land Rover. It's essential to note that the first-generation Range Rover from 1970 through the early 1980s typically featured a two-door design. The four-door model was introduced later in the 1980s. The four-door versions gained popularity in the mid-'80s and continued to evolve over subsequent generations. These vehicles are recognized for their off-road capabilities, luxurious interiors, and robust design, making them an iconic choice in the SUV market. They have undergone numerous (...)
