DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Matching numbers Most desirable 4.9 version Beautiful sound The Maserati Ghibli made its debut in 1966 at the prestigious Turin motor show. It was equipped with a powerful four-cam V8 90° 4.7 engine, which produced an impressive 335 hp. This engine originated in the legendary Maserati 450s racing cars and was later enlarged to 4.9 litres for the 'SS' version. With a staggering top speed of 275 km/h (!), the Ghibli was on par with its Italian rival, the Ferrari 365GTB Daytona. The Ghibli's design was realised by none other than Giorgetto Giugiaro, for the renowned Ghia design house. He managed to create a perfectly balanced and timeless design, making the Ghibli today considered one of the most stunning car designs ever. The interplay of pure elegance and brute force (...)
