DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Ultimate driver's car Detailed history Automatic gearbox Mercedes joined forces with French designer Paul Bracq to give the entire SL-line a fresh new touch, and this was an immediate success. It went down in history as a very powerful two-seater roadster that distinguished itself from its competitors due to excellent seating comfort, outstanding driving performance, and remarkable safety features. This Mercedes 280SL retains a classic red/beige color combination, reflecting its original delivery in 1970. Meticulously refurbished to the highest standards, the beige full leather interior looks as immaculate as the day it left the dealership. Additionally, all dashboard buttons are still functional. What makes this 280SL even more special is that it still has the original Becker (...)
