DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Many enthusiasts would agree that the 997.2 is one of the best water-cooled 911's to drive and own. The 997 is equipped with direct fuel injection and hydraulic power steering, providing a more sophisticated and modern driving experience than the 996. This example was delivered to its first owner by Porsche Zentrum Freiburg (Germany) in April 2009 in a very elegant color combination: metallic Midnight blue with a dark blue hood. It has a remarkable low mileage of 53.000 Km and has had 3 meticulous owners from new. The cabriolet has the advantages of a manual gearbox and offers exciting performance thanks to its 3.6 liter Flat 6 engine. This 911 has never had any major issues during its time on the road. The paint and the black leather interior are in very good condition. The (...)
