DESCRIPTION ET EQUIPEMENTS

Porsche 1965 VHC Rally FIA papers Class GT16 The short wheelbase is the first version of the long line of 911's, it is the birth of a prestigious sports car that will never cease to evolve, a myth was born, equipped with a two liter flat 6-cylinder with Solex carbs, its architecture combined with air cooling will quickly give it a sound that is unique to it and will contribute greatly to its image. The chassis 302 558 was delivered the 19 October 1965 to Autogerma Bologna to the Viscount di Madrone. After a peaceful life and three private Italian owners, the car was reinforced and modified in 2002 into a race car to the delight of a Porsche enthusiast from Turin well known in the world since he had a collection of more than 15 cars from Stuttgart. Unfortunately, he has just left us (...)
